4. Submitting Tips

4.1. The following steps below outline how to submit tips:

a) The competition involves registered entrants submitting tips for NRL games during the Regular Season, in accordance with these Terms and Conditions.

b) For each game during the Regular Season, an entrant must nominate their tip by selecting the team they predict will win the game and the margin they predict a team will win by for a selected game.

c) Tips may only be submitted using the Kiosk which entrants can access within the Casino by logging on with their Login Account.

d) Entrants may not submit more than one tip per game.

e) Tips must be submitted before the Tipping Deadline (see section 5 below). Tips will be deemed to be submitted at the time of receipt and not at the time of transmission. Late, incomplete, incorrectly submitted, illegible, corrupted or misdirected tips will be deemed invalid.

5. Tipping Deadline

5.1. Deadlines to input tips:

a) An entrant may submit a tip for any game during the Regular Season prior to the advertised start time for that game (Tipping Deadline).

b) A running timetable of scheduled game starting times will be available from the Kiosk located within the Casino.

c) Any postponed, rescheduled or delayed games will have their Tipping Deadline updated as required.

6. Points and rankings

6.1. Points and rankings are as follows:

6.2. 1 point is awarded for tipping the winner of the match, inclusive of any golden point time played. If the final result (including any additional time played) for the match is a draw no points are awarded for the game.

6.3. A bonus 5 points is awarded for tipping all correct winners in that round.

6.4. A margin score is required to be entered for one match in each round. The margin represents the amount that you predict your selected team will win by. Your margin score will be used to determine the winner of a round or the entire competition if the tipping scores are equal. The lower your margin score the better the entrant is deemed to have performed.

7. Calculating margins

7.1. If the team you tip wins the match, your margin score is the difference between the actual margin in the final result of the game that the team you tipped won by, and the margin you entered. For example if you tipped Australia:

* Full time score Australia 54 vs Italy 6

* Margin entered 36

* Actual Margin 48

* Margin Score  $48 - 36 = 12$

If the team you tipped loses the match, your margin score is the actual margin plus the margin entered. For example if you tipped Italy:

* Full time score Australia 54 vs Italy 6

* Margin entered 6

* Actual Margin 48

* Margin Score  $48 + 6 = 54$

7.2. If a tipper does not submit a tip for a game and/or round, they are assigned the AWAY team as their tip for that game.

7.3. Points awarded to entrants will be aggregated at the completion of each round during the Regular Season, and entrants will be ranked in accordance with the points they scored and their margin score for the round. The rankings for each separate round in the Regular Season will be used to determine the winners of the Weekly Prizes in accordance with clause 14 below.

7.4. The points and margin scores awarded to entrants for each round will accumulate throughout the Regular Season. The rankings for the whole of the Regular Season will be used to determine the winners of the First, Second and Third Prizes in accordance with clause 14 below.

8. Determination of winners

8.1. The margin score will be used to determine the winner of a round or the overall competition if the tip scores are equal. For example if two tippers share 1st place on 100 points, the tipper with the lowest margin score will be the winner.

8.2. If tippers cannot be split using these methods then the prize will be split. The prize splitting process will be such that where there is a tie for any place (first place, second place etc) the prize for that place and prize for the next lower place will be combined, and each of the tied winners will receive an equal split of the combined prize. For example, where there is a tie between two winners for the First Prize, the First and Second Prizes will be combined and each of the two winners will then receive half of the combined prize.

9. Prizes

9.1. Prizes apply to all entrants in the competition. These prizes include:

1st Prize: 2,000 Vantage Dollars

2nd Prize: 500 Vantage Dollars

3rd Prize: 250 Vantage Dollars

10. Weekly Prizes

10.1. The highest point scorer for each round (as determined by these terms and conditions) will receive 50 Vantage Dollars. If there is a tie for the round the prize will be split evenly. This prize will be manually added to the prize winner's account.

10.2. Winners will receive their Prize after their identity has been confirmed in accordance with Conditions 20 and 21.

10.3. All Prizes must be taken as stated and cannot be exchanged for alternate prizes or offers. Any tax implication or liability that attaches to a Prize will be the sole responsibility of the relevant winner.

Valid identification acceptable to the Promoter will be either one form of valid photographic identification (Passport or Australian driver's licence) with an undamaged clearly visible photograph, or two other forms of non-photographic identification acceptable to the Promoter.
